ACC's in-transition package allows you to receive full membership benefits during your job search. Simply complete and return this waiver of dues and we will renew your membership.

Please check off your responses below. All must be checked in order to qualify.

I certify that I am:

- a current ACC member or a recently lapsed ACC member.
- currently unemployed and actively seeking employment in-house.
- currently not holding myself out to the public for the practice of law.
- eligible and meet ACC's membership guidelines (www.acc.com/eligibility).

I understand that I can renew my ACC membership as an In-Transition member. Upon re-employment as a corporate attorney, I will notify ACC immediately. If I accept a position that makes me ineligible for membership, I agree to notify ACC of my new status and my membership will be discontinued.

The above does not apply. I am:

- Re-employed as in-house counsel with another organization. Please update my record (new information below) and continue my membership.
- No longer working as a corporate attorney. Please cancel my membership.
- Retired. (Retired member dues are $95 annually.) Continue membership? Yes No

Upon approval of your application, you will receive a retired member invoice for payment or notification of your waiver acceptance.
