Risk Management in a High-Risk Environment

- When risk managed poorly, business suffers and people lose jobs
- When it's managed effectively, saving capital and earnings, people get promoted
- Corporate counsel can quarterback the risk management

Policies are Corporate Assets

- You needn't be an expert on insurance just need to know:
 - √ What generally policies cover (so you ask for payment only where payment is due)
 - √ What they don't cover (to maintain reasonable client expectations)
 - √ What to do to protect them (like any other asset)

Key Concepts

- First-party vs. third-party insurance
- Duty to defend vs. duty to indemnify
- What triggers coverage
- When must you notify the insurers
- What you need to do to get a claim paid

Key Concepts: 1st vs. 3rd Party Insurance

- First-party: Carrier writes the check to the Company
- Third-party: Carrier writes the check to the claimant
- First/third-party: Some policies are both (Cyber)
- Deductible/SIR: Company's layer of financial responsibility before coverage kicks in

Key Concepts: Duties Owed

- Duty to defend: Potential coverage (same as duty to reimburse?)
- Duty to indemnify: Coverage more likely than not
- Duty to settle: Not in the policy, implied by law
 - ✓ Insurer must settle if liability is reasonably likely
 - ✓ Excess Judgment Rule applies if liability is likely to exceed policy limits and Insurer refuses to settle limits waived

Trap No. 1: Notice (Prejudice)

Notice-Prejudice Rule: Often applies when notice within policy period is not a condition to coverage

- Occurrence-based policies
- Long-tail environmental contamination liabilities
- Claims-made

Not Universal: Some states haven't adopted, TN has

Proving Prejudice: Typically carrier's burden

Trap No. 3: Cooperation (General)

When carrier is defending:

- Assist with discovery, docs and depos
- Duty to cooperate, not duty to conform

When insured controls defense counsel:

- "All information" ≠ All information
- Defense invoices (privilege?)
- Prejudice?

Case Study: Bet-the-company lawsuit

- Your company makes software for large healthcare systems
- Largest client files action alleging defective software design
- Demand is $1B and getting lots of press
- Carrier defends, but during discovery small related claim in Kentucky, never noticed to the insurance company, settled for $25k
- Carrier denies coverage based on late notice, using policy language to lump the Kentucky claim and bet-the-company lawsuit together
- What do you do?

You Don't Have to be an Expert!

....just remember to ask:

- What kind of policy applies to the claim?
- What do we have to do right now to preserve coverage?
- How do we plan ahead to get the coverage we paid for?
