UPCOMING PROGRAMMING

HOT TOPICS AT THE FTC

This is one of the most activist FTCs in decades, with a flurry of rulemaking and big tech litigation, and they haven't forgotten about financial services. Join us this month to hear from Baker Hostetler Partner, Amy Mudge, who has 25 years of experience defending FTC investigations. She'll bring you up to date on the latest including giving updates on the: Junk Fee Rulemaking, Concerns with the use of AI, Negative Options, Dark Patterns, Consumer Reviews, and Testimonials

Meet the Co-Chairs!

Thank you for being a part of our Financial Services Network (FSN)! We are thrilled we have kicked off the year on a positive note. We are armed with a lineup of insightful legal updates and various other engaging content planned for our community. Whether you are seeking the latest industry trends, regulatory insights, or simply wish to stay well-informed, we have you covered. You also can watch our previous legal updates on the ACC website and watch the replay.

Your participation is integral to the success of our network, and we encourage you to share your thoughts on topics and issues that matter most to you. Your input only enhances the quality of our discussions and the content we offer. Please spread the word among your colleagues and friends, inviting them to join our growing network. We look forward to continuing to serve our membership.
