Silken, Matthew (@The Octagon): For the first 15 years that I taught at Penn I would and my last class by playing the passage below from Dr. King's speech and urging my class to be thankful for their many blessings and to live a committed life after graduation. The link is to Dr. King's entire speech, the last, which he gave just weeks before his assassination. I always play it to recognize the MLK Holiday and thought it was something our team might want to read/hear/look about it.

Enjoy the long weekend.
