Workplace Violence Course Summary

This 35-minute training course is intended for all audiences, including employees of both private- and public-sector organizations. With some customization, this training course can help fulfill the violence-prevention training requirements of state laws such as New York's Public Employee Safety and Health (PESH) Act. Our online workplace violence course includes pop quizzes, news clippings and a final quiz highlighting real-world compliance issues that employees should learn to recognize and respond to appropriately. The topics covered in the compliance training course include —

- What is workplace violence?
- Types of violence
- Risk factors
- Prevention methods
- Security measures
- Zero tolerance
- Red flags
- Dealing with a volatile situation
- Weapons
- Reporting procedures
- Response plan
- Other elements
