Faculty Biographies

Mark Chandler

Mark Chandler is senior vice president, general counsel, and secretary of Cisco Systems, in San Jose, California, where he manages a 120-member team of professionals.

Prior to that, he was managing attorney, Europe, Middle East, and Africa, based in Paris. He was previously general counsel of StrataCom, Inc., which Cisco acquired, and was vice president, corporate development, and general counsel of Maxtor Corporation, a Fortune 500 manufacturer of computer data storage devices.

He also participated in the Robert Bosch Foundation fellowship program in Bonn and Munich, Germany, including a work assignment in the German Ministry of Economics. Mr. Chandler is a member of the board of directors of Lytton Gardens Senior Communities in Palo Alto, California, the board of visitors of Stanford Law School, and the advisory council of the Woodrow Wilson International Center for Scholars in Washington. He previously served as member and chairman of the City of Palo Alto planning commission and as a member of the City of Palo Alto Utilities advisory commission.

He received a B.A. from Harvard College and a J.D. from Stanford Law School.

Jami Wintz McKeon

Jami Wintz McKeon is the chair of Morgan Lewis' commercial litigation practice and one of the leaders of the global litigation practice in San Francisco. Her practice focuses on complex litigation at both the trial and appellate level, including business disputes, fraud litigation and class action cases. She has substantial experience in litigation involving mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, and divestitures. Ms. McKeon has represented companies in numerous industries, including financial services, computer hardware and software, technology, and health care industries. Ms. McKeon is active in firm leadership, having served two terms on the firm's advisory board and currently a member of the firm's compensation and legal personnel committees. She played an active role in Morgan Lewis' expansion on the West Coast, relocating to California, from where she continues her national practice.

Ms. McKeon has served as an instructor for the National Institute of Trial Advocacy and national and regional advocacy programs for beginning and experienced lawyers. She is a frequent speaker at industry and legal professional development conferences. Ms. McKeon is listed in The Best Lawyers in America and was selected by The American Lawyer in the category of best lawyers - commercial litigation.

Ms. McKeon received a B.A. Pennsylvania State University and her J.D. from Villanova University School of Law.

Pfizer Approach To Evaluating Flat Fees

Assumptions

- \blacksquare At the outset, must set forth assumptions about case volume and tasks to be performed
- At the end of the year, verify flat fee amount by tracking hours expended and multiplying by hourly rates
- Revisit if material deviation due to unforeseen change in case activity or work to be performed
- Trust is key easier with long-term relationship
